CARTE POSTALE

CLOVELLY, on the border of North Devon, consists principally of one thoroughfare—the High Street, part of which is shown in this view. Its houses are built, each on a different level, along the zig-zag path, and the effect is quite unique. The unsophisticated charm of Clovelly has endeared the place to all lovers of the beautiful.

Was so pleased to see your handwriting but you might have sent me some news -
was going to say - are you Aunt or Uncle - I mean, have you a niece or nephews? How is Ho? Do write & tell me.
I have a similar letter before you. H^m.

I hope you are well and arranging for an early visit to London. With the exception of the foggy part, we have had an early winter. Several days lately have been sunny & spring-like, but it is never wise to pay compliments to the weather. Even at this moment it is quite "snippy".
